FROM THE OLD WORLD.

JOURNALISTIC VIEWS ON THE RENT AGITATION.

The Probable Effect of the Arrests---Beaconsfield has an Interview with a Number of Home Rulers.

LONDON, November 24.—The newspapers of opposite political views agree that the arrests of Davitt, Killen and Daly in Ireland have had the effect of reducing the anti-rent agitators to the abandonment of incendiary language in their speeches.

The daily News thinks that the agitation will henceforth become more disciplined and organized, while the Times anticipates it will soon die out as the audiences at the meetings will soon tire of listening to dull speeches.

The tin plate workers demand five per cent advance in wages, which probably will be yielded to, the manufacturers being crowded with orders.

A London correspondent of the Manchester Guardian says: Lord Beaconsfield, on Saturday, requested the attendance at his official residence of a member of the Home Rule party with whom he conversed a long time about the petition of the Irish members of Parliament praying that the Government relieve the prevailing distress in many parts of Ireland, the greatest of which resulted from the scarcity of fuel. Lord Beaconsfield declared that the Government was favorably disposed to the prayer of the memorialists, and that they contemplate sending large quantities of coal to the ports nearest the distressed districts, to be distributed by the poor law officers and relief committees at cost price.

Railroad Collision.

NEW LONDON, Ct. Nov. 24.—A collision between the freight and passenger train on the New London Northern Railroad occurred this morning between Palmer and Three Rivers, Massachusetts. The engines of both trains and two or three cars were wrecked. Seven persons were injured, more or less severely, the majority of them being trackmen of the road who were riding in the baggage car of the passenger train. Homer Williams, engineer of the freight train, has both legs broken, and his fireman was severely injured in the back. The collision was due to the stoppage of the freight engineer's watch, through which he was twelve minutes behind schedule time.

To Hear Complaints.

AUGUSTA, Me., Nov. 24.—The governor and council have given notice that they will be in session from the 1st to the 13th of December, for the purpose of examining official returns, and candidates claiming irregularities or other causes resumed to vitiate their election will have reasonable opportunity to be heard personally.

A telegram from a member of the Republican advisory committee states that the Republican Senators and Representatives elect from every county in the State will be present at the opening of the hearing, Monday, December 1st, each to see for himself the precise nature of the returns of his district in order to have corrections made if any errors be found.

Foreign Items.

LONDON, Nov. 24.—The only disquieting circumstances concerning the meeting at Balla, county Mayo, on Saturday last was the military order and discipline observed by the procession, which was evidently the result of training.

John Thadeus Delane, late editor of the London Times is dead, aged sixty-two.

ALGIERS, Nov. 24.—The city is in a state of great excitement because of the recently repeated fires. A judicial inquiry is proceeding as to their cause.

A Pastoral Letter.

LONDON, Nov. 24.—A pastoral letter from Archbishop McCabe, of Dublin, was read in all Catholic churches yesterday, declaring that all must take part in bearing the burden of the bad harvests in Ireland, but they must take care not to drive God from their side by a violation of his law. The pastoral letter also says: "Unfortunately, men proclaiming sympathy for the people are disseminating doctrines which, if pushed to their logical conclusion, strike at the root of good faith and mutual confidence."

North Carolina Cotton Factories.

Rochester Herald.

There are fifty-three cotton mills in operation in North Carolina, and the consumption for the past year is estimated at 38,484 bales, or 17,297,800 pounds. There was an increase of 16,644 baies over the previous year. Three large mills are now being erected, with the prospect that others will be added within the next twelve months. Georgia and the Carolinas are making substantial progress in the manufacturing of cotton goods, while Louisiana has not built a cotton factory since the war.

Arrest of a Colored Mail Carrier.

RICHMOND, Nov. 23.—Special Agent Henderson of the Post Office Department to-day arrested J. G. Bough (col.), mail carrier, on charge of robbing the mails. He was entrapped by decoy, a letter and five marked one dollar bills were found on the person of a white mail carrier named Hall, to whom Bough had just given them in change. Bough was bailed in $1,500 by his mother.

The Knife in Illinois.

VIRGINIA, Ill., Nov. 24.—John and Robert Taylor quarreled with the Eismann brothers yesterday, and knives were freely used. One of the Eismanns has died from his injuries, and the other is not expected to live. Officers are in pursuit of the Taylors, who escaped unhurt.

TRENTON, Nov. 24.—Graham, the confederate of Hunter in the murder of Armstrong, at Camden, was sentenced to-day to twenty years' hard labor.

A Heavy Consolidation.

CINCINNATI, Nov. 23.—The brewers of this city have recently been holding frequent meetings, and, it is reported, have determined to merge all their separate interests into one gigantic brewing company with a capital of $8,000,000. It is said that some such action was necessary because competition had cut down prices so low and obtaining customers had become so expensive that the profits of separate breweries were eaten up.

The Gaston Distillery Frauds.

Correspondence of the NEWS.

In a late issue of your paper I notice a charge that the recent investigation of alleged frauds in Gaston county against the revenue laws of the United States resulted in "whitewashing" the officers and individuals concerned. Being one of the officers engaged in the investigation, namely, the commissioner who issued the warrants and tried the cases, I ask the privilege of denying through your columns any "whitewashing" on my part, and of giving the public the facts that they may judge for themselves.

I went to Gaston county at the urgent request of O. H. Blocker, revenue agent. I was a stranger to all parties concerned, without any leaning in their favor, and from reports of Mr. Blocker and his agents was rather prepared to find an almost universal conspiracy among the people of that county to defraud the government of its legitimate revenue. At the request of Mr. Blocker I issued about a dozen search warrants and an equal number of warrants of arrest—all that he asked for; and of the cases tried before me not one showed any attempt or purpose on the part of the accused to commit any fraud upon the government.

If there was "whitewashing" it must have been by me, or by revenue agent Blocker, for he had charge of the prosecution. I tried the charge. For myself, I pronounce the charge, so far as I am concerned, wholly false. Whether Mr. Blocker "whitewashed" any one is for him to say. We were the only ones who could. I did not.

Respectfully,

THOS. M. PITTMAN.

Exodusting.

Wilson Advance.

An undercurrent of dissatisfaction has been at work among our colored people for some months. The desire to leave this State and emigrate to the North west has been growing every day, and the spark which glowed during the "Kansas movement" has been fanned into a flame until a deep spirit of unrest pervades a large number of Wilson county's colored people. Monday the town was filled with the "exodusters" and their friends, and until train time (about eleven o'clock) quite a number of them congregated at the depot. We do not think that over ten left on the train Monday morning, but a large number followed them on the night train. Others will leave as soon as they can sell their cotton, dispose of their effects, and "raise the wind."

After receiving the hearty congratulations of their numerous friends, the happy pair left on the 11 o'clock train to visit Washington and other northern cities.

PERU IN PERIL.

AN INVASION BY THE CHILIAN FORCES.

Operations Transferred from Water to Land---The Allied Armies Compelled to Retreat.

PANAMA, Nov. 15.—The long expected invasion of Peru by the Chilian forces is at last an accomplished fact, and is sufficiently serious in its character to promise a speedy termination of the war. The Chilians, not satisfied with their naval success, which amounts to the annihilation of the Peruvian navy, have ventured everything in operations on land, which, whether successful or not, are exceedingly ill advised. The point selected for the landing was Pisagua, where the smallest allied force was stationed, and at a point between the principal forces of the allies, which are concentrated at Arica and Iquique. On Sunday, Nov. 2, the Chilian fleet, composed of sixteen sail in all, appeared off the port of Pisagua and at once made preparation to land. The iron clads and corvettes stationed themselves within pistol shot of the shore, and it was the work of but a few minutes to silence the weak batteries which the allies held on the heights behind the town.

The guns of the fleet effectually covered the landing of the troops, and although a strong resistance is reported to have been made and many lives lost, the Bolivian troops who garrisoned the town retired to San Bernardo, about two leagues from Pisagua, leaving the town in possession of the Chilians. The Bolivians then continued their march southward, following the line of the Pisagua & Iquique railway to Agua Santa, fifty miles from Pisagua, hoping to unite with the allied forces from Iquique, which were sent to reinforce them. The retreat was subsequently continued to Pera Grande, distant about seventeen miles from Iquique. Here the allied forces expected to make a stand, or if pressed to retire to Iquique. The latter course will be suicidal to both the army and the town, as it will almost certainly secure the capture of both by the Chilians, the fleet being able to take an important part in an attack on Iquique.

The Chilian forces are estimated at twelve thousand men, well armed and thoroughly disciplined—the flower of the Chilian army. The allies number nearly nine thousand of all arms, and if properly handled in the difficult country back of Iquique, whither the Chilians are advancing, they should beat off the invaders. The Chilians, who at last accounts had followed the retiring forces of the army, had reached Santa Catalina, a march of a day and half from the allies' position. The allies are under the command of General Buendia, who has seen some service. the Chilian commander-in-chief, General Escola, is a talented officer. Our latest Lima news (November 5th), speaking of the situation, says the battle on land must soon take place.

THE LATEST.

PARIS, Nov. 24.—Antony Gibbs & Sons, merchants, of this city, have received a telegram from Valparaiso announcing that a decisive victory has been gained by the Chilians over the Peruvians and Bolivians near Iquique. The defeat of the allied forces is described as crushing.

THE TEXAS PACIFIC.

What Colonel Scott Says About the Road---A Great Contract.

New York Mail, 23d.

The rumors recently in the air concerning the Texas Pacific and the plans of Colonel Thomas A. Scott will crystallize this morning into definite action. The directors of the Texas Pacific will hold a meeting at which the contract for the continuation of the line to El Paso on the Rio Grande will come up for consideration and signature. Colonel Scott will sign—on behalf of the road—with a syndicate for the building of seven hundred and fifty miles west from Fort Worth, at a cost of $20,000 a mile. The entire sum of the contract, for all purposes, with the syndicate is $15,000,000, as large a contract as has recently been heard of. In regard to the road, Colonel Scott said in an interview: "The road is developing rapidly, and is already producing a trade beyond the expectations of its friends. Last month its business was the largest in its history, showing its ability to take care of all its obligations and to provide for its immediate extensions to the West. The seven hundred and fifty miles west of Fort Worth will be finished in two years, connecting it, as the western boundary of New Mexico, with the Southern Pacific road, which is the western part of the Texas Pacific. This connection will form another through line from St. Louis to San Francisco. Our line will develop an immense agricultural, as well as mineral, field. The line, the Texas Pacific, will be from Fort Worth to El Paso, and from there to the western boundary of New Mexico, and to the boundary of old Mexico, and tapping all the larger States of old Mexico, which will be greatly benefited by the line. The mineral resources of old Mexico are vast and well known, and they will be rapidly developed when the road is completed."

"How long will it be before the road is completed through so that a passenger can run from St. Louis to California by the Texas and Southern Pacific?"

"The proposition of the parties is to have it completed in two years from the signing of the contract I referred to. By the time we get to the western boundary of New Mexico the Southern Pacific will have reached that point coming east."

"Will that route be any shorter than the old one?"

"About one hundred miles. The great advantage will be that the territory traversed has a temperate climate, lower summits than the other road, and entirely free from snow, so that the road will be open all the year round. Texarkana will be the eastern terminus of the main road. At that point we connect with the Iron Mountain road, and at Denison a connection will be made with the Missouri, Kansas and Texas. Thus a through direct connection will be made with St. Louis by two lines."

"At what do you estimate the cost?"

"On our part of the road, the Texas Pacific, the cost will average about thirty thousand dollars a mile. The whole South will be largely benefited by the new road, and New Orleans and Memphis will particularly receive an impetus of trade by the completion of the Southern through line to California."

In reference to the foregoing statements one of the principal directors of the Texas Pacific road said last evening that the probable cost of building the extension had been overestimated, but did not state on what terms the contract would be drawn up. The reported understanding on this subject between Colonel Scott and Mr. C. P. Huntington, attorney for the Southern Pacific railroad of California, being mentioned to this gentleman, he said at once and with emphasis, that although he could not speak positively as to what might or might not have been suggested by the directors of the Texas and Pacific road in their individual capacity, he was quite certain that no design had ever been entertained of substituting for San Diego any other Western terminus; and that no union with any other line looking to the abandonment of any portion of their chartered route had ever come up for discussion before the board. He added, in order to show the extreme probability of the adoption of any measure of that character: "Our company holds, besides other valuable franchises, a land grant of 18,000,000 acres, and this can only become available through the construction of the road clear through to San Diego before the year 1884, and would be wholly and immediately forfeited by our final change of route made in the meantime."

STANLY.

ALBEMARLE, Nov. 22.—There has been quite a change in the weather in the last few days; quite a snow fell yesterday.

There has been several marriages of late, licenses are so cheap—that is the cause, I guess.

There is a good deal of sickness, but few deaths.

HARNETT.

HARRINGTON, Nov. 22.—The first snow of the season fell last Wednesday to the depth of about four inches, and would have been six or eight had not the ground been so warm. It nearly all melted off the next day, but the balance is here yet, and is likely to remain, as this is the oldest morning we have had. The thermometer is 22°, the weather is fair, and wind is from the north.

Not a breath of politics ripples the waves in this section. Don't know any thing about Shermanor Grant, or Bayard or Seymour. All we know is that Sheriff Green is hot after our taxes.

STORY OF BLIGHTED AFFECTIONS.

A Young Woman Grows too Lavish of Her Love.

Atlanta Constitution, 22d.

On Thursday night, a few minutes before 6 o'clock, Miss Sallie Fenn, a good-looking blonde aged eighteen years, took about forty grains of morphine, at 133 Hunter street, where she had been boarding for the past two weeks with Mrs. Fannie Collins. It seems that the house is owned by Dr. Cook, a traveling dentist, and that he rents a portion of it to Mrs. Collins. Some two hours after the rash girl had swallowed the big dose she was discovered by Mrs. Collins to be in a deep sleep or stupor, her limbs and body being perfectly cold and numb. The whole household was at once aroused to a sense of her condition and the family of Dr. Cook, tether with Mrs. Collins, did all in the power to rouse her. Drs. Salm and Thompson were summoned and worked like beavers to relieve the unfortunate girl who now lay in a perfectly comatose condition. Brandy and coffee were freely injected in order to counteract, if possible, the influence of the powerful drug, but all to no purpose, for the stomach was in no condition to retain anything, and for a time it seemed that she would surely die. They beat her, and pulled her, and tickled her in the most violent manner, and once or twice before 12 o'clock she rallied for a moment and talked a little as if conscious of her surroundings and condition. After 12 o'clock however, she passed into a profound stupor in which she lay breathing most heavily and painfully during the whole night and all day yesterday the reporter seeing her just before dark yesterday afternoon. At that time the doctor thought that there was some improvement in her condition, and expressed the opinion that the drug had spent its force upon her system, and said she would probably recover provided she had sufficient strength remaining to withstand the extreme prostration which always results from taking large doses of morphine.

Her case was given up as hopeless by Dr. Salm just after dark last night. Dr. Roach was called in, and having walked to the bed and looked on the unfortunate girl gave it as his opinion that she could not possibly live. A large crowd, including many ladies, visited the house during the evening. It was the universal opinion that she would die before morning.

LATE

Sallie Fenn, the unfortunate girl whose sad history was given in our last issue, died on yesterday at 1 o'clock. Her fate is certainly a warning to young girls everywhere who "love, not wisely," etc.

The Mormons and the Utes.

DENVER, Colado, Nov. 21.—A special to the Tribune from Los Pinos, dated 20th, says: Ouray stated to the commission that is prepared to prove by the testimony of members of his tribe that secret missaries from the Mormons have been conferring with the White River Utes and attempting to prolong hostilities by promising to furnish arms and ammunition at certain points on Grand river for their use as long as they could. He adds that although the information which has come to him is insufficient to convict, yet he has little doubt but that he will be able to establish the connection of the Mormons with the origin of the outbreak, and that similar inducements were held out to Indians prior to the firing of the first shot at the agency. Ouray says that is informed by his secret agent that these overtures have been made to Jack men since the visit of General Adams to the White River Utes, and it is his belief that representatives from the Mormons have been in communication with Jack for a long time. Entertaining this view, an extra effort will be made to secure the attendance of Jack, as a commission have determined to settle this matter to the bottom. No action was offered to the admission of testimony of the women, and it was accordingly incorporated in the reports. Ouray says he has resorted to the last measure for peaceable intercession on behalf of the White River Utes.

Those who have tried it, say, there is only one good cough medicine and that is Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup, it is cheap too, only twenty-five cents a bottle.

WASHINGTON AFFAIRS.

HOW THE "RULE" APPLIES TO ITS INVENTORS.

The Maine "Returning Board"---Meteoric Republicans---The Soldiers' Home Question---Thomas Statue.

Correspondence of the NEWS.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 22.

The subject of a "Returning Board" in Maine is not likely to cause much trouble. They have an honest Democratic Governor there, the Governor has an honest conservative council to advise him, and the Supreme Court of State is made up for the most part of men of learning and high standing. If the Governor issues certificates to a majority of Democratic Senators his act will stand at least until the Court can have a chance, if there be a lawful chance, to act upon the matter. There will be no violence. The Republican leaders, after they have time for reflection, will remember that they made the laws under which they now suffer loss, and that the outcry already made, and any future complaint, except such as may be made to the courts, will be considered childish in the extreme.

There are a couple of meteoric Republicans who, a year or more ago, were an object of curiosity and occasional terror to their associates. These were Assistant Secretary McCormick, whose peculiarity was that he was constantly doing something silly and publishing it in the papers, and Secretary of the Senate Gorham, who was soft on the subject of money and on many other subjects. Happily for the Radical party it is rid of both of them as office holders. I write this as a warning to Democrats everywhere not to admit either of these gentlemen to the party councils if they should appear as applicants for admission during the next six months. It will not be safe.

Congress established and liberally endowed certain homes for disabled Union soldiers of the late war. There is one in Maine, one in Wisconsin, one in Ohio, and one at Hampton, Virginia. When I say it endowed them liberally, I mean that General Butler, then a member of Congress, secured the passage of a bill which turned over to these homes an immense amount of money due to volunteer soldiers, and which was unclaimed or was forfeited by reason of serious offenses. But for this act the Homes would have languished under half support from the public, or have drawn heavily from the resources of the government every year. Under this act they munificently care for many thousands of disabled soldiers who feel none of the degradation consequent upon private charity. It is now proposed to urge upon Congress to drop from the board of managers of these homes the name of the only public man who has taken an active interest in them, that is General Butler. If there ever was a case in which politics should have nothing to do, it is this. General Butler may be said to have created the homes, and it is equally true that, at his own expense, he has efficiently aided in their management. He should be left just where he is—in respect to them.

It is to the credit of the Army of the Cumberland Society that the Thomas statue, just unveiled here with imposing ceremonies, is fully paid for. In this connection it may be said properly that the first monument raised to ex-President Lincoln was bought and paid for exclusively by conservative men of this District, and that the structure proposed by Republicans at the same time has not yet been commenced.

CARROLL.

THE TRADE-MARK DECISION.

How it will Affect the Trade---Probable Legislation.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 21.—General Payne, commissioner of patents, being asked to-day what effect the decision of the Supreme Court, delivered yesterday, declaring the trade-mark law unconstitutional, would have, replied that it would be serious, and many business interests suffer. Whether another law could be found that would cover substantially the same interests, and stand the scrutiny of the Supreme Court, was doubtful. The court did not pass upon what might be done, but they effectually settled what had been done. The patent office will immediately suspend the issuance of trade-mark privileges, and those which have been issued are of course now of no avail. A man had as well own a canceled postage stamp as a trade mark. Being asked if some of these trade-marks thus nullified were not very valuable, the commissioner replied that they were, or at least were so regarded, before yesterday's decision. However, the common law right in trade-marks survives, but the United States statutory provisions are annulled. There are now over 8,000 trade marks registered, and 200 pending for registration.

Of course, under the decision all operations under this head must be suspended. It in effect abolishes the trade-mark bureau of the patent office. This will cut off from the patent office revenues about $40,000 yearly. Since the establishment of the trade-mark system the fees paid into the office have amounted to over $250,000, which have been paid into the United States Treasury. Now that the law has been declared unconstitutional, it is clear that this money was wrongfully collected, and actions for its recovery brought in the court of claims will hold good. But as the contingent fund of the patent office is not large enough to meet this unexpected demand, Commissioner Payne will probably ask of Congress a special appropriation. In addition to this, he will call the attention of Congress to the fact that legislation upon this subject is of vital importance to business interests, and if necessary an amendment should be made to the constitution. In the meantime, however, those who have been using trade-marks have acquired a common-law right to them. Under the existing rules of the patent office a trade-mark was granted for thirty years, and on payment of the fee, $25, at the expiration of this period, was renewed for thirty years longer.

The Crop.

Wilson Advance.

The yield of corn and cotton for this year is much greater than was expected, and the hearts of our farmers are glad. One of our most successful farmers says that fully a two-third crop has been produced, and that the farmers have realized more than they expected. The drought, which was very destructive was not so damaging as was believed in August, and, on the whole, it seems that the era of hard times among our farmers is about to give way to a more prosperous condition of affairs.

Death of Colonel Erwin.

Charlotte Observer, 22d.

At his residence, Bellevue, in Burke county, near Morganton, on the 20th inst., Colonel Joseph J. Erwin, a highly esteemed and influential citizen, died after an illness of a few weeks' duration. Colonel Erwin was a descendant of one of the oldest families in that section of the State, a man of talents and culture, courageous, and of the most scrupulous integrity. Although modest and retiring to a remarkable degree he was several times called from private to public life. His last appearance in public life was in 1871, when he was elected to the convention of 1872. He leaves a large family, among whom are Mrs. Lawrence B. Holt and Mrs. Gant, of Alamance county.

LATE STATE NOTES.

Lincolnton Progress.

We learn that Mr. A. Costner met with the misfortune of having his cotton-gin and several bales of cotton burned this week.

Mr. Pinkney Miller was loading his wagon with cotton, and in it at the time were two of his little children, when the mules attached to the wagon became frightened and ran away, throwing out both children, one of whom, aged about one year, was so badly injured that death ensued on Wednesday. The other child, it is thought, is fatally injured.

Newton Enterprise.

In traveling from this place to Lincolnton last week we noticed a great many fields of wheat, and we never saw better prospects for a good crop. In some neighborhoods the stand is excellent.

Some smart rascal bored himself into the postoffice Wednesday night and relieved Postmaster Garvin of his cash drawer and its contents, amounting to between fifteen and twenty dollars. The thief left the brace and bit, used to effect the entrance, lying near by. Several persons are strongly suspicioned, but no arrests have been made.

Salem Press.

Dawson Proctor's house, near the Paper-mill tract, was destroyed by fire on Saturday night last. Nothing in the building was saved.

Drs. Bahnson and Siewers removed a tumor from the neck of Mrs. H. C. Thomas on Monday last. The operation was a complete success.

Some of the small boys amuse themselves by sailing on Winkler's ice pond at every opportunity. Hoisted umbrellas take the place of the snowy canvass.

Dr. Wiseman, of Farmington, Davie county, lost thirty-six hogs and pigs from the cholera this fall, up to last Wednesday. Several of his other pigs were sick. Charles Bahnson, of the same place, has lost four hogs from the same disease.

Statesville Landmark.

It afforded us pleasure to welcome in our office, Monday evening, Captain John B Hussey, founder and for several years editor of this paper. He was en route to Washington.

We were shown Friday a piece of gold ore found on the land of Mr. J. Rowan Davis, about five miles east of this place. This specimen was found on the surface, and Mr. Davis will soon institute a rigid search with the hope of finding the vein.

Salisbury News, 22d.

Night before last Mr. Jake Beaver had $204 stolen from him at his residence in this county; and Mr. S. J. Binswanger had $32 in money lifted from his pile on the same night. The latter case was given to policeman Price, who worked it up and had his man by dark. The money will be returned and the matter will be dropped at that is it, supposed.

Salisbury came near having two steam boiler explosions yesterday. But for the timely inspection of a boiler by a fireman in the shops of Meroney & Bro., it would have blown out for want of water we are told. Firemen and engineers, holding, as they do, their lives in their own hands to a certain extent, as well as those of others, cannot be too particular in their attention to duty.

Greenville Express.

A prisoner was jailed every day last week. The jail is pretty full, but they keep on coming in.

Diphtheria is raging in several sections of the county. We are glad to learn that not much fatality attends the disease.

Sam Johnson, one of the most industrious and respected colored men of this town, was found dead in his bed last Monday morning.

The gin house, barn and stables, on the farm of J. J. Laughinghouse, of this county, were burned last Friday night.

Tobacco Plant.

The stamp tobacco tax in Orange county for the month of October, 1879, was $77,688.00 a falling off as compared with October of last year of $7,227.84. The tax for the months of October and September of this year were about the same.

Mr. Alexander Fleming, of Dutchville township, Granville county, has sold his this year's crop of tobacco to be delivered as soon as ready for market for the sum of $1,220, estimated to be an average of $45 per hundred weight, for his entire crop.

The old homestead of Major W. N. Patterson was ourned Friday. The property is now owned by two brothers named Carrol. Everything in the house was consumed except two beds. The fire was accidental, igniting from a defective chimney.

Accident.

Wilson Advance.

Monday night when the colored emigrants were boarding the train a colored man by the name of Allen Farmer fell between the stone platform and the for the growth of our population, we find that those who, either from cause or from negligence, did not go to the polls, number over 250,000.

The three things which will especially attract attention in these figures are: First, that Governor Robinson, outside Tammany Canal ring influence, was the most popular man before the people this year; second, that had the Democrats submitted to the Tammany dictation they could not have carried the State for the men indorsed and voted for by Tammany and the Canal ring are beaten, and third, this State is, according to the vote cast for Governor, anti-Republican by over 60,000. In short, New York is a Democratic State when the party is not betrayed by factions nor disgraced by dictatorial cliques.

An Old Oyster Digger.

There is on Long Island Sound an old oyster digger who has raked the bivalves in for nearly sixty years. He estimates that in his time he has caught billions of oysters and has eaten thousands of oysters in soups and stews. The other night he was taken to a church fair, and was given a regular church fair oyster stew. He exclaimed—"I have eaten nothing but oysters all my life in some shape or another, and I like a change. This is something new."

THE WELDON TRAGEDY.

FURTHER DETAILS OF THE UNFORTUNATE AFFAIR.

A Crowd Stands Passively by and Watches the Fight Without Making an Effort at Interference.

Correspondence of the News.

WELDON, Nov. 22.—To-day one of the most tragic affairs that ever disturbed this county, happened in this village. For some time past E. H. Hicks and L. F. Larkin have been disputing about the division line of certain property—a small piece of land, and scarcely worth quarreling over—lying near the canal bank. There had been some litigation over it, which had been decided in favor of Larkin. The quarrel had become town talk; threats had been freely made by Hicks that if Larkin undertook to remove the fence he would shoot him, or any other man who should try to invade what he considered his rights, and Larkin was equally determined to make the effort. So, when the rumor spread about the village that the affair would culminate to-day, quite a number of people gathered in the vicinity to watch the proceedings.

A little after 10 o'clock Larkin, with a friend named John Merritt, attempted to pull down the rail fence which marked the dividing line, but Hicks came out of his house with a loaded revolver and threatened to shoot either of the men if they laid hands on the rails. Larkin and Merritt were thus driven off, and in about half an hour returned, the latter with a gun in his hands. Larkin laid his hands on the rail and Hicks again warned him to desist, but the former paid no attention and commenced the demolition of the fence. Hicks then fired his revolver at Larkin, striking the latter's hand with the ball, but not wounding him seriously. Merritt then put his gun to his shoulder, and, taking deliberate aim, fired the whole contents of his fowling piece in the face of his assailant, tearing off almost the entire half of Hicks' head. Mrs. Hicks then came out of the house where she had witnessed the killing of her husband, and picking up the dead man's pistol, fired it three times at Merritt and Larkin, but without taking effect upon them, when she was seized and the weapon taken from her.

The two men then left the horrible scene, and the woman, with her five children, throwing themselves upon the mutilated and bleeding body of their ill-fated husband and father, rent the air with their shrieks and cries of lamentations. It was with great trouble the neighbors could induce the murdered man's family to leave the body.

This afternoon the remains were still lying near the banks of the stream awaiting the action of the coroner's jury.

There is considerable excitement in the town, and strictures upon the conduct of Merritt are very severe, notwithstanding Hicks fired the first shot. But there is one thing certain; if the people who stood by in seeming apathy at the first outbreak had interfered the tragedy would have been averted—for the present anyway. Merritt has been arrested to await the action of the coroner's jury.

Accused Burglars Committed.

Charlotte Observer, 23d.

Henry Horn and Robert Harris, the one captured in the act of trying to burglarize Col. R. M. Oates' residence and the other charged with having robbed Mr. J. R. Holland's house in connection with the first named, had a hearing before the mayor yesterday evening, Jos. H. Wilson appearing for Mr. Holland and Col. H. C. Jones for the accused. No new facts were brought out. Horn confessed that he had participated in the robbery of Mr. Holland's house, but charges that Harris went inside the building while he stood on the outside and watched; that the stolen article were handed to him by Harris and afterward they divided them. None of the articles he charges Harris with having taken—including Mr. Holland's gold watch—have been recovered, and herein lies the strength of Harris's defense. He claims that he didn't know Horn—never saw him before. They were both committed to jail to await trial for their lives by the Superior Court at its spring session.

Demoralized by Lottery Luck.

New York Sun.

Patrick J. O'Brien, a compositor, invested sixty-seven cents in one-third of a lottery ticket in April last, on which he drew $5,000. Upon his return from a trip to Washington, Mrs. O'Brien advised her husband to resume his trade at which he had been earning from $20 to $25 a week. Patrick announced that he was a man of means and should retire from business. In six months, according to his wife's showing, he has spent $3,600 in personal enjoyment, leaving her to work and provide for the children. On Wednesday night O'Brien visited his wife in Harlem. She upbraided him for his prodigality, and thereat she says, he threatened her life, and she felt constrained to have him arrested. Thursday in the Harlem Police Court, Justice Kilbreth sentenced O'Brien to six months' imprisonment on Blackwell's Island. He has the balance of $1,400 in the Park Bank, of which his wife says he will not give her a penny.

Got Out Doors.

The close confinement of all factory work, gives the operators pallid faces, poor appetite, languid, miserable feelings, poor blood, inactive liver, kidney and urinary troubles, and all the physicians and medicines in the world cannot help them unless they get out of doors or use Hop Bitters, the purest and best remedy, especially for such cases, having abundance of health, sunshine and rosy cheeks in them. They cost but a trifle. See another column.

Why Will You

Allow a cold to advance in your system and thus encourage more serious maladies, such as Pneumonia, Hemorrhages and Lung troubles when an immediate relief can be so readily attained. Boschee's German Syrup has gained the largest sale in the world for the cure of Cough, Colds and the severest Lung Diseases. It is Dr. Boschee's famous German prescription, and is prepared with the greatest care, and no fear need be entertained in administering it to the youngest child, as per directions. The sale of this medicine is unprecedented. Since first introduced there has been a constant increasing demand and without a single report of a failure to do its work in any case. Ask your Druggist as to the truth of these remarks. Large size 75 cents. Try it and be convinced.

Political Issues.

Kearney's advice to all parties is to "pool their issues." We think a good deal as he does, that we should bury the dead issues of the past. As a healing compound for all issues, sores, wounds &c., there is nothing equal to Henry's Carbolic Salve. Beware of counterfeits.

DAILY NEWS

GEO. C. JORDAN, Editor and Prop'r.

TUESDAY, NOVEMBER 25, 1879.

JUST now San Francisco ought to be a good market for trade dollars. At the rate paid for the Mexican dollar the trades are worth 99 in gold.

THE Madison County News makes a strong appeal to the "moonshiners" to stop manufacturing "crooked" whisky and make an endeavor to gain an honest living by raising tobacco. Sensible.

A CHICAGO story is going the rounds that General Grant is commencing to show signs of insanity, but if the instances cited are all that such a supposition is based on the world is full of lunatics.

THE Supreme Court of Nevada sustains the constitutionality of the drummer's tax in that State. The decision was made upon a test case in which the commercial travelers "pooled their issues" and may be considered a permanent settlement of the question.

THE New York Commercial Bulletin says: "There are rumors afloat that a pool of French capitalists have joined others here, and even names of banks are named as being concerned in it, for the purpose of buying lard below a certain price, and the strength is attributed in part to this. We give this for what it is worth, not being able to confirm it, though given to us as a fact."

WHEN the last rebel has gone to his final rest, and the spirit of rebellion has died out both South and North, then the hope of the New York Tribune that the lies uttered against the loyalty of General Robert Anderson will cease and be heard of no more forever, may be realized. Both his bravery and his loyalty were too strongly stamped upon his defense at Fort Sumter against fearful odds to be ever successfully questioned by senseless gossips and the obtrusive diaries and memorandums of eminent or obscure intermeddlers with his fame.—Washington Republican.

As the late Secretary Stanton was about the only person who ever impugned General Anderson's loyalty, and even then conditionally, we fail to see how the matter is in anyway connected with the so-called "spirit of rebellion." If the Republican, however, wishes to throw bricks at the "great war secretary," we can only say we have no objection to its pitching into that "obscure intermeddler."

THE Seymour "boom" has once more started. Undoubtedly, in a political sense, he is the strongest Democrat in the United States. But his health is precarious, and he knows it, and it is chiefly on this account that of late years he has declined taking an active part in political affairs. He has been nearly all his life in harness, and he has worked ably and zealously in behalf of Democratic principles. He is now in his seventieth year, and never of a robust constitution, his old-time tireless zeal could not fail to impair his strength, and it is on this account that he uttered several years ago his resolve to retire forever from the political arena. Had he broken this resolve this year he would have swept New York in such fashion that Mr. Cornell would never again have been heard of.

AND once more there is trouble among the California Radicals. They are not satisfied that Mr. George C. Gorham should remain on the Republican national committee, and the chairman of the State committee has asked for his removal or dismissal. In reply, Mr. Gorham says he will be quite ready to meet that question when it comes before the national committee. He says that the Republican State committee of California is entirely under the influence of the Central Pacific railroad, and studies more the interest of that corporation than of the Republican party. He can demonstrate to the satisfaction of the national committee, he says, that he supported the Republican candidates for Congress, and all the other Republican nominees who did not belong body and soul to the railroad. He claims that he can also prove to the committee that if its sanction is given to the tying of the Republican party of California to the tail of the Central Pacific railroad, it will result in the loss of the State next year to the Republican Presidential candidate and the election of a Democratic United States Senator.

THE disclosures resulting from the efforts of the Boston Globe to unearth the Maine election frauds have had the effect of creating a tremendous rattling of the dry bones of Mr. Blaine's galvanized skeletons way down in that "truly loil" section. Never since the time the State "went hell bent for Governor Kent" has there been so much excitement over an election, and now Mr. Blaine is very indignant because the Governor and council in his State are understood to contemplate the investigation of charges of fraud and bribery in connection with the recent election. He characterizes this purpose as a burglarious attempt to seize the government, and says with great positiveness that the Republicans will not submit to it. Mr. Blaine complains very bitterly because the public are not allowed access to the returns. Mr. Blaine does not explain what course the Republicans expect to pursue should the Governor and council throw out the Republicans declared elected members of the Legislature who are not lawfully entitled to certificates. Mr. Blaine and his friends are terribly excited at the idea of a returning board in Maine, although they think a returning board is exactly the thing in Louisiana.

A PIEDMONT VIEW.

Our excellent contemporary, the Charlotte Democrat, has the following to say under the head of "State appropriations:"

We see it announced that a circular has been issued by some one, somewhere in this State against further appropriations by the State to railroads. We know not who the author is or where the circular originated, but we are prepared to say this on the subject, which we said more than six months ago, that we are opposed to further appropriations by the State to any railroad unless the State will assume the debts of the different counties which were incurred for building railroads. For instance, Mecklenburg has a debt of between three and four hundred thousand dollars which she incurred as a corporation for building railroads; Union, Richmond, New Hanover and many other counties have similar debts. Now our position is this: we are opposed to further taxing our people to build a railroad anywhere until the matter of taxation is equalized by the State assuming the debts of counties.

Considering that Mecklenburg is the third largest tax-paying county in the State, and New Hanover the largest, and that the two counties are carrying a debt of about $800,000 as corporations, incurred for internal improvements; and further, that they and other counties have already done their duty to other sections in the way of paying taxes to give them railroad facilities, we do not think it just to require them to continue to be taxed for railroads, and, probably, roads that will scarcely pay running expenses when finished—we mean especially what is known as the Western Extension of the Western North Carolina Road. Although the State has already invested a large amount of money in the Western North Carolina Railroad, we give it as our opinion, from experience and observation, that the State had better donate the whole concern to any person or persons who will take the work and finish it, rather than put more money in it.

We have had nothing to do with issuing any circular on the subject, and don't propose to have anything to do with matters of that sort only in a public manner. We do not hesitate, however, to express the above opinion on the subject of public appropriations, and we expect to stand by what we say. Not only State appropriations for railroads should be stopped, but also the appropriations for magnificent public buildings at Morganton and Goldsboro and Raleigh. We care not what the platforms of the Democratic and Republican parties declare on the subject; all who are not locally interested, can now see the impracticability and unfairness of continuing extravagant State appropriations. The State has already done its duty in that way. If approbation of railroad appropriations is to be a test of fealty to the Democratic party, then we for one protest against such a test.

It makes no difference with us whether our position on this subject is popular or unpopular. It is enough for us to believe that it is right and just, though it may be considerably in advance of the politician's idea.

POLITICAL NOTES.

The colored Republican club of Winchester, Va., last week passed a resolution refusing to recognize any minister of the gospel as a political leader.

A colored man named Mert has been elected Circuit Court Clerk of Bolivar county, Mississippi, over two white competitors, many whites voting for him on account of his superior qualifications.

"Mr. Hayes," says the Springfield Republican "has never yet had awarded to him the honor, which historically and justly belongs to him since his election, as the real statesman of the Republican party."

The Louisville Courier-Journal referring to Mr. Hendrick's reported abuse of Mr. Tilden, says that within six months the former will be under his political tombstone, upon which will be written, "Gone to meet John Kelly."

The Nation hopes that it will not be accused of pessimism in saying that "the administration's part in the New York canvass destroys all hope of any further gain from it to the cause of civil service reform."

A Blaine Club, composed of prominent merchants and manufacturers of Pittsburg, Pa., will be organized shortly. It is said that it will be a large one and will combine the best elements of the Republican party in Pittsburg and in Western Pennsylvania.

United States District Attorney Stewart L. Woodford left Brooklyn for the South Thursday evening. He goes to Louisiana on the invitation of leading citizens of that State, and will deliver at prominent points some six or eight speeches in vindication of the principles of the Republican party as he understands them.

The New York Times says: "The vote of New York at the recent election will, in round numbers, reach 900,000 on Governor, being but little over 11 per cent. less than the vote of the last Presidential year. Cornell's share of this vote will be less than 420,000, but giving him credit for all that, his proportion of the vote of the State will be less than even that received by Dix when the Tilden wave swept the State in 1874. Beginning with 1875, the declining course of Republican strength in the State may thus be represented as follows: 1875, 49.03 per cent.; 1876, 48.12 per cent; 1877, 47.26 per cent.; 1878, 47.21 per cent.. 1869, 46.66 per cent.

The New York Election.

Brooklyn Eagle.

The canvass of the vote cast for State officers in this State at the recent election has been completed by the respective county authorities. The returns show the election of all the Republican candidates with the exception of Soule by the following pluralities:

Name.	Office.	Plurality.
Cornell,	Governor,	42,782
Hoskins,	Lieut. Governor,	188
Wadsworth,	Controller,	5,927
General Carr,	Secretary of State,	2,029
Wendell,	State Treasurer,	2,683
Ward,	Attorney General,	4,426

Seymour, the Democratic candidate for State Engineer, has a plurality over Soule of 14,051.

It appears that the aggregate number of votes cast for Governor was 899,095, of which Robinson received 375,762. Kelly 77,550; Lewis, Greenbacker, 20,-254; Mears, Prohibitionist, 4,401; scattering, 2,584; and Cornell, 418,544, showing that Cornell falls 62,007 short of having a majority of all the votes cast, and has 34,768 less than the combined vote of Robinson and Kelly.

It is impossible for these returns to tell how many Republican votes were cast for Governor Robinson, but that he received a good many is attested by the aggregate which his vote makes when added to that of Kelly as compared with Potter and the other Democratic candidates. Thus if we add Kelly's vote to Robinson's we have an aggregate of 453,312 against 435,109 cast for Potter, and 439,631 cast for Seymour, the only Democrat elected. There is no reason to believe that any Democrat refused to support Seymour, and there is evidence on the face of the returns that he was supported by several thousand Republicans. That the discontented Republicans did content themselves with scratching Soule is proved by the fact that Seymour receives 439,-631 votes, while no other Democrat receives more than 435,109. This excess must be accounted for by Republican ballots cast for Seymour.

How serious the Republican defection for Cornell was may be judged by comparing his vote with that of Hoskins, who was, next to Soule, the least popular candidate on the Republican ticket. Hoskins got 435,297 and Cornell 418,-544—a loss for Cornell of 16,753. That this is by no means the measure of the defection is well known, for in many places the canal ring Democrats and their Tammany allies voted directly for him instead of for Kelly. It is putting the defection at small figures to call it 20,000, which is certainly enough to justify the despised "scratchers" in holding up their heads. When we compare the aggregate vote of this year with that of 1876 we find that Cornell has polled 50,000 less than was polled by Morgan and that Robinson and Kelly combined have polled 53,000 less than Robinson received in that year. In other words more than 100,000 voters who participated in the election of 1876 did not go the polls this year, and when we consult the census, and allow cars. The train was in motion, and as the room between the platform and the railroad is not wide enough to admit a man's body, the poor man was horribly mashed. He was rescued from his position by some companions, and is now getting on as well as could be expected. Too many accidents occur from carelessness while getting on or off the train, and it is time for people to learn that a train in motion is no respecter of persons.

The National Agricultural Society.

At a meeting of a number of gentlemen held at Cooper Institute, New York City, October 22d, it was decided to organize a National Agricultural Society, for the purpose of promoting and protecting American agriculture by practical measures. A circular has been received from the committee on organization setting forth the advantages of such a society, and asking that it be stated that those who favor the undertaking are requested to send their names and addresses to the chairman of the committee, J. H. Reall, 23 Pearl street, New York. The names of the following North Carolinians are printed as members of the committee on organization: S. B. Alexander, Charlotte; Walter L. Steele, Rockingham; A. R. Ledoux, Chapel Hill; Thomas M. Holt, Haw River, and L. L. Polk of Raleigh.

A World of Good.

One of the most popular medicines now before the American public, is Hop Bitters. You see it everywhere. People take it with good effect. It builds them up. It is not as pleasant to the taste as some other Bitters, as it is not a whiskey drink. It is more like the old-fashioned bone set tea that has done a world of good. If you don't feel just right, try Hop Bitters.—Nunda News.

Practical Economy.

Before Patapsco Baking Powder was patented and placed on the market consumers had to pay 50 cents per pound for the old rut powders. You can now buy Patapsco for about one-half that amount and get a better article. This accounts for the popularity of Patapsco.

VEGETINE
Behold Me a Well Woman.
CANCER.

MONTGOMERY, ALA., June 26, 1878.

H. R. STEVENS, BOSTON.

DEAR SIR:—I have for years been a sufferer from a dreadful CANCER in my side which caused me untold agony, and as I am a widow with a family dependent upon my exertions for a support, my pain of body was only equalled by my pain of mind, at seeing my children want for bread. I was presented by a kind friend in Cincinnati with half a dozen bottles of Vegetine, and although one bottle is still untouched, behold me a well woman, completely restored in body and mind, and able to perform my accustomed duties. Long may you live! and may the history of my wonderful cure lead other like sufferers to purchase your valuable medicine, if it is with the last cent they possess.

Yours gratefully,
MRS. FULLER SUTT.

GOODMAN, MISS., May 6, 1878.

H. R. STEVENS, BOSTON:

I have been suffering for 25 years with the Piles and found but little relief from any medicine that I have taken for many years past. Last winter I suffered considerably worse than ever before, also in connection with Rheumatism I was confined to my bed for several weeks. Having procured a bottle of Vegetine I took it with good effect. I continued the use, and after taking four or five bottles, find myself comparatively cured. I can cheerfully recommend it for the benefits that I have received from it.

Yours respectfully,
J. W. TAGGART.

I write this to certify that I have known Mrs. Fuller Sutt from childhood, and have seen the hours of agony, that her patient womanhood has been called upon to endure. She has suffered untold agonies and now sits beside me in perfect health with her child upon her knee. The prayers of this grateful woman will ever be yours, my noble sir, and we add our testimony to the thousands that favor the greatest of all modern discoveries, "Vegetine."

Yours respectfully,
MRS. CHELLET SUMMER.

LUNG DISEASE.

ELMA, ALA., May 12, 1872.

H. R. STEVENS, BOSTON:

I take great pleasure in recommending your Vegetine. I have been suffering for a long time with the Lung Disease, trying every kind of medicine that I could get, but none seemed to do me any good, until I tried your great Vegetine remedy. I had used it only a short time before I could discover a very great change in my health for the better. I don't consider that your medicine has its equal, for the diseases which you propose to cure, especially the disease that I have been afflicted with

THE GENUINE
CELEBRATED
FOR THE CURE OF
Hepatitis, or Liver Complaint,
DYSPEPSIA AND SICK HEADACHE

Symptoms of a Diseased Liver.

PAIN in the right side, under the edge of the ribs, increases on pressure; sometimes the pain is in the left side; the patient is rarely able to lie on the left side, sometimes the pain is felt under the shoulder blade, and it frequently extends to the top of the shoulder, and is sometimes mistaken for rheumatism in the arm. The stomach is affected with loss of appetite and sickness; the bowels in general are costive, sometimes alternative with lax; the head is troubled with pain, accompanied with a dull, heavy sensation in the back part. There is generally a considerable loss of memory, accompanied with a painful sensation of having left undone something which ought to have been done. A slight, dry cough is sometimes an attendant. The patient complains of weariness and debility; he is easily startled, his feet are cold or burning, and he complains of a prickly sensation of the skin; his spirits are low; and although he is satisfied that exercise would be beneficial to him, yet he can scarcely summon up fortitude enough to try it. In fact, he distrusts every remedy. Several of the above symptoms attend the disease, but cases have occurred where few of them existed, yet examination of the body, after death, has shown the LIVER to have been extensively deranged.

AGUE AND FEVER

DR. C. McLANE'S LIVER PILLS, IN CASES OF AGUE AND FEVER, when taken with Quinine, are productive of the most happy results. No better cathartic can be used, preparatory to, or after taking Quiline. We would advise all who are afflicted with this disease to give them a FAIR TRIAL.

For all bilious derangements, and as a simple purgative, they are unequaled.

Cuticura

FROM THE HON. WM. TAYLOR, STATE SENATOR OF MASSACHUSETTS.

MESSRS. WEEKS & POTTER: Gentlemen,—To say that I am grateful, is only a poor expression of my feelings, but it is the best word I can use, for I feel it in every sense of the word. I have been a great sufferer with skin diseases for the last twelve (12) years. My head and face being covered with sores, I could not rest with the burning heat and itching of the parts affected, and was confined to my house for weeks at a time. My disease has been called Eczema, of a most aggravated type, by many physicians, but I doubt if ever fully understood by any of them. It was more like a combination of several skin humors. I have spent much money seeking a cure, and in 1877 I went to Europe, and consulted some of the best physicians in London. I received temporary relief only, for in the spring it would break out again as bad as ever. When I came back to Boston, I was told by many friends that Dr. ——— (whose reputation for the cure of those diseases was of the highest order) could cure me. I waited on the doctor; he prescribed for me. I followed his advice for six months, and I can surely say, without any improvement. I tried other physicians and among them Dr. ———, of East Boston, and Dr. ———, of city proper, but all to no purpose. They did me no good; their remedies were so ineffectual that at no time did I feel that a cure would result from them.

I have swallowed five hundred arsenic pills, 5-10 grain, and taken bottle after bottle of internal remedies, besides all the external applications I have used, but the effect was the same. I became satisfied that I could not be cured, but might be kept from getting worse.

Now, about three months ago, Mr. Meehan, a gentleman well known to Boston people, called my attention to your CUTICURA, and promised wonderful results if I would only make a trial. He told me of his own experience with it, and so persevered on me that I went with him to a drug store and bought two large boxes of CUTICURA, and some CUTICURA SOAP, and commenced to use it according to the directions. There was so much humor lodged within the skin, that as soon as I commenced the use of CUTICURA it came to the surface and festered, until vast quantities had come out and greatly intensified my sufferings for about two weeks. But I did not mind this, as I felt that I was going to get rid of the humor when I saw it coming to the surface in such large quantities. After the first two or three weeks use of this remedy, I was greatly encouraged by a gradual lessening of the inflammation of a number of painful sores. I carefully, faithfully, and cheerfully followed the directions to the letter, feeling each week nearer a cure, until at the present moment, after three months' use of CUTICURA, and twelve years of as constant suffering as was ever endured, I can say that I am cured, and positive my case the most remarkable on record. I have been so elated with my success that I have stopped men on the street who were afflicted, and told them to get the CUTICURA and it would cure them. This is why I am so grateful to you, for I believe it to be the best and greatest discovery of the age, and that it will cure all who are suffering with these diseases. I may add that I took no internal medicine but the CUTICURA RESOLVENT.

WILLIAM TAYLOR.

LOCAL BRIEFS.

—Turkeys are ripe, and we'll all take one.

—Internal revenue receipts yesterday $670.83.

—Catholic Fair at Metropolitan Hall to-night.

—Cotton receipts yesterday one hundred and fifty bales.

—Emerson & Co's Raleigh Directory is nearly ready for the binder.

—The cistern on Cabarrus street is being bricked up—and it is about time.

—The firm of Yeargan, Petty & Co. will suspend business on Thanksgiving day.

—A drummer's license was issued to Goldsborough, Myers & Pitts, Baltimore, yesterday.

—Old bonds to the amount of $13,000 were received in exchange at the treasury yesterday.

—Building improvements seem to be the order of the day in the southern part of the city.

—It is pity that the weather was not as pleasant for the colored Fair as it was on yesterday and Sunday.

—One of the most unique exhibitions that ever graced Raleigh is that of the "Midgets" at Tucker Hall.

—Sheriff Nowell is after delinquent tax-payers with a sharp stick. The 1st of December is the limit allowed —Isaac Oettinger will sell zephyr worsted at the old price, notwithstanding the price has advanced considerably.

—The city cemetery looks somewhat dilapidated. In marked contrast the National Cemetery shows to good advantage.

—It is announced that the concert of the Person street Methodist church will be repeated on Friday evening next.

—Unmailable matter at the postoffice consists of a letter addressed to Messrs. F. & H. Fries, Salem, N. C.; and a postal card to Mr. Thomas A. Allen, Chatham county, N. C.

—Give the small boy a box of matches—and if you don't give them to him he will get them anyway, and a pile of leaves and a bonfire is the inevitable result.

—The reception of Lieut. Perrin Busbee and his bride, at the residence of Mr. Fab. H. Busbee yesterday afternoon, was largely attended by the friends and acquaintances of the family.

—Many of the colored people holding stock in the Industrial Association propose leaving it there with the hope that a similar exhibition next year will be attended with like beneficial and far greater results.

—Messrs. Yeargan, Petty & Company announce that their store will be closed on Thanksgiving Day. Two of their employees sleep in the store and will attend to all necessary business in the forenoon. This announcement should have been issued in Sunday's NEWS but the note was mislaid.

A New North Carolina Novel.

"Myrtle Lawn," by Robert E. Ballard of North Carolina, "is an American romance of real life—a story almost of the present, so near to our time do the incidents occur." It is dedicated to Gid. Branch Alston, Esq., of Warren county. Price, cloth $1 50. Sold by Alfred Williams & Co., Raleigh.

Catholic Fair and Festival.

The Rev. Father White stepped into the NEWS office yesterday and announced that his church would hold a fair and festival, commencing this evening at 7 o'clock, continuing four nights, for the purpose of improving the Cowper property for church purposes. As this is a most worthy object it is to be hoped that the undertaking will be a success. The congregation is small, but as the reverend gentleman is highly esteemed in this community he will undoubtedly receive aid from many outside the pale of his Church.

Mayor's Court.

His Honor was engaged yesterday morning examining the usual Sunday night's quota. Three receptacles of "tanglefoot" whiled away their time in Uncle Da e's parlors for twelve hours before making another attempt to "brace up."

A Chatham farmer with truck to sell, became involved in some unknown manner with a market man, and a bout at fisticuffs ensued, the farmer getting the worst of the business. Then the police took a hand in and landed the belligerents before the Mayor, who, after vainly endeavoring to get at the right of the matter, got so befogged with conflicting evidence that the only course left for him to pursue was to impose a fine on each, which he did, adding thereby $4 to the city treasury.

The Midgets.

Quite a number of our citizens were present at Tucker Hall last evening to take a peep at the "Midgets." They afforded much amusement for the audience by their ready replies, and all seemed pleased. These are undoubtedly the smallest people of their age on the face of the globe, General Mite having arrived at the mature age of fifteen years and reached the immense weight of nine pounds, the ordinary weight of a new-born infant—and Major Atom, five years younger, who weighs fifteen pounds. It is almost impossible to conceive that such tiny affairs are capable of talking and reasoning with lads of their own age, their extremely small stature conveying the idea that they are mere infants. Yet these little chaps are perfectly formed; there is no deformity about them. With many people the word dwarf conveys the idea that deformity is a necessary adjunct. This is a mistake, and those who wish to realize that such is the case should visit Tucker Hall to-night. To show the impression these interesting little people have made elsewhere the following is taken from the Washington Post: "From White House to Capitol, and to the four corners of the city, the excitement regarding the wonderful Midgets has reached an intense fever heat. Such extraordinary human wonders are beyond all description, and to believe the reality one must see them, for no language can convince the incredulous. The President and his family, the Cabinet, in fact everybody is flocking to their daily receptions."

Beating the Telephone.

If there is any one thing in this world that George Stronach prides himself on it is his carrier pigeons. He has fourteen pairs, and he carries them around in his pockets, hat and boots, and if he gets fifteen yards away from his house he writes a note to his wife, hitches it to a pigeon, and "the bird let loose in eastern skies" scoots for home. He had bragged so much about these pigeons that Colonel R. T. Bennett took a pair with him to Wadesboro and started them on a return trip. Now Wadesboro is distant from Raleigh as the crow—or rather pigeon—flies ninety-five miles, providing the map and its accompanying scale are correct. The pigeons made their circles upward and struck a bee line for home, where Mr. Stronach found them in 62m. 30s. afterward, although they might have been there ten or fifteen minutes before he noticed them.

A short time since Captain Andrews sent one of the same breed one hundred miles seaward from Morehead City, which place it reached in 43m. 30s. from the time of departure.

Major Starke says if this thing keeps on he will box up his telephonic arrangement and substitute the pigeons. But his friends think he is a better wire-worker than a pigeon fancier.

What Physicians at Home and Abroad Think of the Seven Springs Iron and Alum Mass.

In the treatment of Dyspepsia, Chlorosis, Anæmia, Nervous and Muscular Debility, Nervous and Sick Headache, Dysmenorrhœa, Menorrhagia, Amenorrhœa, diseases of the Kidneys and Bladder and such like organic or functional disturbances, I know of no remedy upon which I can rely with more certainty of satisfactory results than the "Seven Springs Mass."
W. F. BARR, M. D.,
Abingdon, Va.

I have found no one single remedy to yield such satisfactory results as the "Seven Springs Mass." In the treatment of Dyspepsia, Chronic Diarrhœa, Anæmia, Chlorosis, and for Chronic Eczema, I find it invaluable, associated with appropriate topical treatment.
GEO. T. HARRISON, M. D.,
New York City.

From my experience with the "Iron and Alum Mass," I believe it will prove the best medicine we have in use, for chronic diseases.
G. M. D. PATTERSON, M. D.,
Eaglewood, Texas.

For Dyspepsia, Ulcerations of the Throat, Inflammation of the Neck of the Bladder, Leucorrhœa, etc., the "Seven Springs Mass" seems to act with almost specific effect.
E. O. GRIGSBY,
DeView, Ark.

We could extend this list into the thousands with such testimonials from physicians from every State in the Union, but these are sufficient to indicate its application. The reputation of the remedy is too widely known to waste words upon its character. In ordering from druggists always mention Seven Springs Mass. Price $1 per package or six for $5, sent by mail, postpaid.

STATE OF NORTH CAROLINA,
EXECUTIVE DEPARTMENT.

By authority of law, I Thomas J. Jarvis Governor of North Carolina, do set apart, Thursday, November 27th, 1879, as a day of prayer and thanksgiving to Almighty God, for the manifold mercies and blessings He has vouchsafed to us during the year now passing away.

And in order for its proper observance I request the people on that day to close up their places of business and abandoning all secular pursuits to attend their respective places of Divine Worship, to return thanks to the Great Ruler of individuals and nations for the peace and tranquility which we have enjoyed; for the exemption from pestilence and disease which He has given us; for the kind and friendly relations that has existed among all classes of our citizens; for the general and growing prosperity that has pervaded the whole state and for all His varied blessings bestowed upon us and to invoke a continuance of His watchful care and protection over us during the coming year.

And while it will be becoming on that day to remember the widow and the orphan, and the poor and needy everywhere among us; and to minister to their wants I especially commend to the prayers and gifts of the people the Orphans in the Asylum at Oxford, who are now dependent for support solely upon the charity of the people, the State appropriation for that purpose being entirely exhausted.

Done at our city of Raleigh, this, the 11th day of November, in the year of Our Lord, one thousand eight hundred and seventy nine, and in the one hundred and fourth year of our American Independence.

THOMAS J. JARVIS.
